101 W Main

Corner of Main St. and Walnut. According to Maroa Sesquicentennial book article written by Wanda Meyers, the First Presbyterian Church was built in 1911. Closed in 1938 and reopened in January 1949. The Church was torn down in November of 1975. The apartment complex was then built in 1978 by Gary Hughes.

Please notice there has been a few updates to the business directory!

I know not everyone is on Face Book and Sharon Woolum posted something on her page Remembering Maroa that I thought was an interesting story that I thought some people might like to read about also. Here is Sharon's post.

"I found an interesting footnote on one of the recipes in the 2004 Sesquicentennial recipe books and had to follow up on it. I'd like you to meet Maroa Hall of Bluffton, Ohio, who came to visit our town of Maroa in September of 2003. When she discovered over 20 years ago that there was a town with the same name as hers, she wanted to visit it. Her dream came true when her son and daughter-in-law, Daryl and Lisa Hall, brought her to Maroa on September 4, 2003. Joy and David Garner, Bob and Marilyn Gentle and Karen Halicki welcomed them with a potluck at the Gardner's. The Halls then spent the next two days visiting Maroa, Arthur and Kenney (Kenney Celebration). Sadly, Maroa Hall passed away in 2007. She was remembered as being a happy lady who enjoyed life. I am so happy she was able to visit our town and fulfill a dream. God bless you Maroa.

The tree lighting was a success again this year!

Thank you for everybody who was able to come out and enjoy the hot chocolate and cookies during the tree lighting. It was so nice to see Santa and Mrs on the firetruck as well. It is always so nice to see everyone come out and enjoy the events. Thanks to everyone who helped out with the event. Without you all it would not take place! Hope you all had a great Christmas and wishes to all to a great 2022!
